Flood Fund Is Over $14,000

Aids Victims Of Recent Disaster

The Newton Chapter of The American Red Cross is proud to announce that this community has contributed $14,120.00 thus far for flood relief opera-tions. This money goes to the National Disaster Fund and will be used for direct aid to victims of the flood disaster in the Northeastern States.

National Red Cross Chair-man, E. Roland Harriman, announced that the amount need ed for the job of returning the thousands of victims to a normal way of life is estimated at $8,000,000.

THE RESPONSE in Newton is typical of the entire country Executive and legislative authorities have joined in rushing every possible kind of federal relief to the stricken communities. It is well for the public Advance to keep in mind the clear distinction between federal aid tinction between provided by and the assistance provided by the Red Cross and other relief

However extensive and efficacious the Federal Relief pro-gram may be, there is no di-minution of the need for the traditional humanitarian services of the Red Cross.

AMONG nations from which Red Cross messages of sympathy and offers of aid have been received are Great Britain, The Netherlands, Austria, Canada, France, Australia and Vene-

Ignoring a plea by Alderman Stuart M. Spaulding that a pro-fessional study of the city's short, ave radio needs be made, the Board of Aldermen Monday night appropriated $5345 for a separate transmitter for the Civil Defense and Fire Depart-

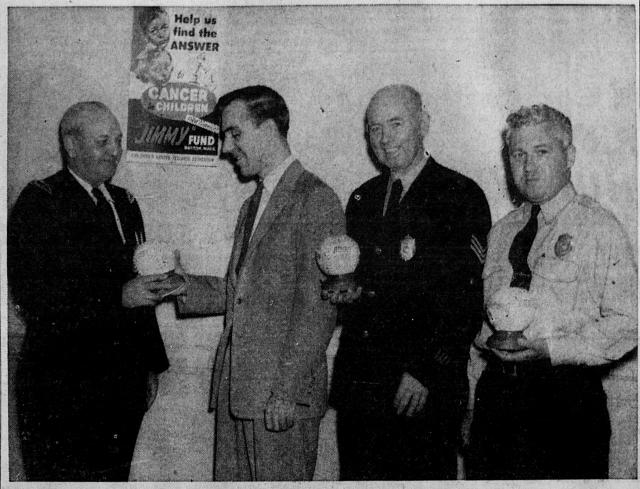

ASSERTING that the city depends on two-way radio during emergencies, Alderman Spaulding pointed out that the Police Department will soon need a new system and stated that the Street Department may also need a separate system. He urged a "professional and unbiased engineering" study be made of the city's radio needs before the fund for the Civil Defense and Fire Department system be appropriated.

Chairman Earle D. Wood of the Finance Committee reported that the city will be eligible for "matched funds," from the Federal Civil Defense Administration for $2554 of the total to be appropriated for the new radio transmitter, if the funds are voted by September 30.

THE TEMPORARY post of assistant health officer was created to arrange for acting Director of Public Health Dr. Henry W. Godfrey to remain as assistant until December 31, if a new director is engaged before that time.

The Board of Appeals has granted a permit to build a two-family house in a Single Residence B. Zonc in Waban on an appeal from the refusal of the Building Commission to issue the permit. THE APPEAL of Ella Fortini to build a two-family house at 31 Coyne road, Waban, was granted by the Board, compris-ing Charles S. Grover, chair-man; Fred A. Hawkins, and Louis W. Ross. They pointed out that in 1950 the lot was in Private Residence Zone, where two-family houses are permit-

The Board ruling follows: "Originally the lot in ques-tion was in a Private Residence zone but in 1950 a part of the neighborhood was shifted from Private Residence to Residence B the new zone line extending along one boundary of the lo in question. This rezoning was not clearly indicated on the city maps and it was generally thought that the lor in question was still located in the Private Residence Zone. Petitioner purchased the lot with this under standing and on July 12, 1954 the Building Commissioner is-sued a permit for a two-family house with this understanding. However, in April 1955, before the petitioner had started to build, she received a notice from the Building Commission fused the permit and this appeal was filed.

IN THIS neighborhood there are a number of two-family houses built before the aforesaid rezoning. Thus a two family house the halo in question will be in keeping with the neighborhood. While a number of residents

Political Overtones -

One might assume that Furcolo, who obviously considers himself a bit above the level of ward politics, would have both better taste and judgment than to propose the uncalled-for insult to the Governor, even if Thompson did not have sufficient sense to avoid falling for the

It is rather ironical that Thompson, who now pictures himself as something of a, lion in the streets for the Democratic party, bolted the Democratic leadership in the House so often during 1953 and 1954 that the then Democratic House Leader Robert F. Murphy never counted on him in a critical fight.

When Thompson was made Democratic leader in the House last January, he sprang from one extreme to the other and immediately began to harangue his colleagues on party loyalty and their obligation to the Democratic party.

Since that idea had rarely, if ever, occurred to Thompson during the preceding two years, there was some conjecture as to what had caused this astonishing transformation. The surprised Democra-tic legislators could only conclude that Thompson underwent some sort of political blood transfusion that suddenly made him into a never-say-die Democratic stal-

It is rather interesting to look back now and review some of the determined crusades Thompson has waged in behalf of the people during this year of 1955. He was a leader in the fight for the enactment of a law which would restrict the wiretapping activities of the Attorney General and District Attorneys.

Governor Herter had vetoed a similar measure in 1955 on the very solid ground that it would have handicapped the efforts of law-enforcement officers throughout the Commonwealth to track down crim-

A second valiant battle by Thomp son helped to block the passage of the proposed $150,000,000 highway bond issue. The strategy which dictated that stand was a little vague and confused, stand was a little vague and confused, but Thompson put himself on record as opposed to continuing the road-building program without interruption.

Another shocker was the action in preventing Governor Herter from delivering a special message to the House in person on the suggested highway loan. Any broken-down political hack who happens to be visiting the State House, any prize-fighter whose press agent is seeking to build up the gate receipts, is invited to appear before the House and say a few well chosen words.

But the man elected by the people to head the State government was prevented from making a personal appearance.

Now what we are wondering is whether Representative Thompson was doing more harm to the Democratic party, when he was bolting it, or by such actions as directing an insult to Governor Herter after the leadership the latter displayed during the flood emergency.

Will the State's penal problem be im-proved by shortening the terms criminals must serve for their offenses? Or will men given their freedom too quickly prove a menace to society? Those are questions which are being pondered by conscientious legislators.

There are many aspects to the proposed new penal code which the Legislature is being urged to enact, but the basic feature of it is that convicts serving sentences of more than four years for major crimes will get 12½ days off a month for good behavior. That amounts to 150 days The story behind that suggested change in the law goes back to the cold, grey morning last January, when a citizens' committee sat down in an unusual conference in the Cherry Hill cellblock with four desperadoes who had staged could be observed with little a four-day siege.

The four hoodlums told their listeners that what they needed most was hopehope that one day they would have paid their debt to society and would again walk the streets as free men, hope that they would not be forced to spend the rest of their days behind prison walls and bars.

That plea made quite an impression upon the citizens who heard it under dra-matic circumstances from men who at that very moment were under siege and were holding at bay the forces of the entire Commonwealth.

Some persons a little more hard-boiled suspected at the time that what Teddy Green and his compatriots hoped for most was an opportunity to escape from prison and rob a few more banks.

There is not much doubt but that most men sentenced to the State prison in Charlestown learn their lesson very quickly. A few nights in an antiquated cell, with its slop bucket, must seem like a lifetime to the average inmate.

On the other hand, there are some chronic criminals who wil' never be rehabilitated no matter how long they are incarcerated. Experts on the subject estimate that they comprise about 5 percent of the usual prison population. In other words, about one convict in 20 cannot be reformed.

The prisoners in the ancient bastille in Charlestown have been the most interested readers of reports of the heated controversy over the changes in the law recommended by the Wessel committee.

That is understandable because some of them would be eligible for parole immediately, if the new statute were en-acted, and virtually all the others would be able to gain their freedom more quickly-if they behaved themselves.

But the convicts also have been their own worst enemies while the penal bill has been under discussion and debate.

A thinly veiled threat has hung over the legislative proceedings that riots and outbreaks might occurr at the Charlestown prison, if the measure were not ap-

The situation was discussed to a city and the situation was discussed to a city. hind prison bars. That has served to discourage them from voting for the bill rather than induce them to do so.

Senator Lundgren of Worcester has been the most outspoken and energetic opponents of the penal code bill. That is significant because Lundgren formerly served on the State parole board and in that capacity had a fairly comprehensive education in the field of criminology.

This is a much more intricate problem than it appears at first glance. No legislator wants to be responsible for holding a man in prison after he is ready to return to society. Neither does any law-maker wish to turn loose ar. incorrigible criminal who may shoot down a store-keeper or filling station operator a few days after he walks through the prison gates.

A new penal code undoubtedly will be enacted before the Legislature finally prorogues, but a great many revisions are likely to be made in the recommendations to be made in the recommendations of the Wessel committee before the measure is placed on the statute books.

is susceptible to the fever more so than in 1849, if num-bers are any indication. Ura-nium has become the password on millions of lips in this era when untold miracles are being performed. Few industries have been left untouched, — medicine, metallurgy, electrical power are but a few of those that give promise of radical change under the influence of this new revolution. And yet, my fever was of a different kind. No dream of uncovering a new and yet undis-covered field in the wilds of the Colorado Plateau plagued me. My interest was very sim-ple — to take 16 mm color ple — to take 16 mm color moving pictures of the uranium industry for use in New England this fall.

Preparation for the trip was simple. A sleeping bag, an old army jacket, and the regular assortment of shirts, pants, shaving equipment (which I found I didn't use too often) as well as my Bolex-16 camera

Grand Junction, Colorado, was selected as the point at difficulty. Our car was vapor-locked just 100 feet from the top of Loveland Pass which has an altitude of almost 12,000 feet. It was extremely hot, in spite of the altitude, but after pouring water on the fuel pump for a few minutes, it was possible to continue. As we started down the western side of the Continental Divide, the canyons were spotted with small, individual mines. These seemed to be mined by not more than one or two persons. It is often possible for vacationing tourists to pick through deserted mines with sufficient luck to pay for a summer of travel. Often, a harried businessman will lease a likely area for a summer and escape the ulcer-producing pressures of the office for a few weeks of interesting, different relaxation in the shaft of an old mine. And, often professional miners will buy the rights on a worked-out mine. Big operators will pull their equip-ment out of a mine when its production falls below a certain level. This does not necessarily mean that the mine has run out, and often one or two men with no heavy machinery to keep up can do right well in pulling out the scraps of what's city. The situation you discuss is not confined to that one section of Newton. It is just as serious in this part of Newton in which I live. I have called City Hall periodica'ly, both the Street Department and Board of Health. If I complain loud and long enough a special truck is sent to collect my garbage. The situation is worse than ridiculous. It doesn't seem possible that in a city proud of its government and so boastful of the manner in which it is run that a proper garbage collection can-not be regulated and controlled.

WORSE THAN RIDICULOUS

The situation is not just one of inconvenience. It is a defiinite health menace and serious enough for taxpayers to be rightfully up in arms about. The city of Newton should be thoroughly ashamed of its in adequacy to cope with this. It is not enough to be able to boast about the number of new modern school buildings. It is far more important to be able to boast about the cleanliness of the city in which our chil-dren are being reared. Our youngsters can learn with prop er teaching even in an older school building, but they cannot be as healthy as we would like with backyards with over

I appeal to other public spir ited citizens as to suggestions as to what might help improve our garbage collection. Whom or what does one have to know to be able to bring this about? Silver Pick placed the company plane at my disposal, as it was thought that step one might be to view the opera-tions of a number of companies from the air. We did our flying in the early morning, be-fore the hot sun turned the canyons into death traps with violent thermals or air drafts that can toss a plane around like a feather.

Grand Junction airport is about ten miles north of town. This is a fairly good field for a town listed in the census as 15,000 (there are actually closer to 50,000 inhabitants today). As we walked down the flight line we saw the mark of the successful prospector, — the private plane. We passed Od-lum's, Steen's, as well as a number of lesser known individual's ship's.

The ship we were to fly was a Cessna — recently new, all metal, with 225 h.p. We took off and headed southwest.

The Colorado Plateau, many millions of years ago, was a flat plain, but in the intervening years rivers have been con-stantly wearing their way down through that plain. With their meandering, and their constant abrasion, the topography of this area has changed a great deal. Conservative Newton's instruction to its delegate, Edward Fuller, to the Constituional Convention in Philadelphia, called in May 1787, is mentioned as part of the af-termath of Shays' Rebellion in Marion L. Starkey's new book, "A Little Rebellion," published this week by Alfred A. Knopf, New York. This his-torical work, like her two preceding books under the Knopf "The Cherokee Nation." 1946, and "The Devil in Massa-chusetts," 1949, is simultaneous-ly released in Canada. The first of her four historical publications was "The First Planta-While the author, native of Worcester, has made her home in Saugus, Mass. for some thirty years, she has been a frequent visitor in Newton and the house guest of her Boston University classmate, Mrs. William L. Tisdel, and her husband and family in Auburndale. Miss Starkey is godmo-ther to the Tisdel daughter Laurel, now Mrs. Dana White of Easton, Mass., where she has also visited within a month. Miss Starkey again includes Mrs. Tisdel in her "acknowledgements for driving her about the region concerned.

While "A Little Rebellion," which concerns the grievances of impoverished farmers in western Massachusetts against Boston "tyranny," centers in the Berkshire region, all New England was somewhat involved in these commotions of 1786-- New Hampshire, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Province of Maine, and Vermont, not then yet recognized as a state, as well as neighboring New York state.

Captain Daniel Shays, himself a soldier and officer in the Revolution, and a farmer in Brookfield and then Pelham, Mass., was the unwilling leader in the series of revolts known in history as "Shay's Rebelion." Following the unsuccessful assault on the Springfield arsenal and his retreat from Pelham to Petersham, he took flight into New Hampshire and Vermont. in accordance with its by-laws, has formulated plans "to encourage and support the candidacy of reliable and competent men and women to seek elec-tion to public office" in the city election this fall.

THE ASSOCIATION has voted to seek information from all present members of the Board of Aldermen and School Comlittee who have not yet made their intentions known as to whether they plan to seek re-election, and urges them to make announcement in the press immediately. Carrol J. Hoffman, president, states that although the Association theo-retically might encourage the candidacy of an individual even where an incumbent was seeking re-election, the Association would feel an especially strong obligation to seek out quali-fied candidates where the insumbent has decided not to

Whether Nixon Is Sidetracked Depends on Eisenhower;

Much Justification for Maintaining Rule to Stop Members:

Of the Legislature from Referring to the Governor by Name

A rather strange belief exists among some Republican politicians that Vice President Richard B. Nixon will be sidetracked, when the GOP holds its national convention at San Francisco next August and that someone else will be selected as President Eisenhower's running mate.

Nixon is disliked by many of the professional politicians in his own party, including some from his home State of California, and there has been considerable backroom discussions among them of a move to drop him from the Republican ticket in 1956.

things, Nixon's critics are highly concerned over the possibility of his becoming President in the event that anything should happen to Ike during the second term to which they expect he will be elected.

Parents Can Help

Greater driving care than ever before will be needed this fall when children start back to school.

With an enrollment increase of 1½ million over last year, 32 million children will be going to grammar school and high schools in the 1955-56 school year in the United States. A great many of them will be riding bicycles to and from school.

These children will be sharing the road with 58 million motor vehiclesnearly two million more than last year.

It is shocking to realize that the bigest single killer of children aged one to gest single killer of children aged one to 14 in the country is motor vehicle accidents. With more children going back to school this fall than ever before, and more bicycles and cars on the road, the greatest safety precautions must be taken while driving. This is especially true in school zones, near playgrounds and in residential areas.

Bicycle riders are supposed to observe the same rules as those that prevail for motorists. But remember that children are children. It is up to the adult driver to assume the responsibility. Regard every child on a bicycle as a danger signal arriving at the Silver Pick time or the revenue men. to slow down, drive with even more care.

Parents must do their part, too, by teaching children the elements of safe bicycle riding, and making sure that the bicycles are kept in perfect working con-

Need a Watchful Eye

We Americans have more individual freedoms than any other people in the world, and are free to act as we wish, provided of course that our actions do not curtail the liberties and freedoms of

Our American business system is quite different from government-controlled systems under which the individual freedoms we enjoy are distorted or completely eliminated. Action which limits economic freedom also reduces political and individual freedoms.

To preserve our individual freedoms we must keep a watchful eye on proposed changes in our business system, viewing changes change we must keep a watchful eye on proposed each proposal as to its immediate effects compared to its long-range effects.

One of our most important civic duties is to exert our efforts against those |cool and palatable. changes in our system which would tend to destroy our individual freedoms, and to stove, a pile of geological maps and charts, a snake kit, first promote those policies which will improve our American business system.

Political Overtones —

Pulling the rug from under Nixon, however, may be a good deal more difficult than some of the politicians seem to assume. In the first place, Vice Presidential candidates usually are handpicked by the Presidential nominees, and the convention delegates are told for whom

The one exception in modern times occurred at the Democratic national convention in 1944, when the late Franklin D. Roosevelt maintained a hands-off policy and allowed the political bosses in the Democratic party to torpedo Henry A. Wallace, the darling of the left-wingers and later the candidate for President on the Progressive ticket.

Wallace had been the Vice President during Roosevelt's third term in office. But his political philosophy was too much for the conservative Democrats who had nightmares about his becoming President in the event of the death of FDR.

A Missouri Senator named Harry S. Truman defeated Wallace for the Vice Presidential nomination at that '44 convention and a few months later stepped into the Presidency on the death of Franklin Roosevelt.

That, however, happens only about once in a lifetime, and it wouldn't have happened in 1944, if FDR had not given tacit consent.

President Eisenhower, if he agrees to stand for reelection, will decide who his running mate will be. Unless there is some high-level dissension which has en carefully covered up it is likely that he will again give the nod to Nixon and that will be that.

Since it is generally accepted that Nixon in 1952 was the choice of Ike and his top advisers, the rejection of the Californian next year would be tantamount to an admission that they made a mistake.

Nixon, of course, was very nearly asked to turn in his resignation during the '52 campaign in the furore following the disclosure that California businessmen had contributed to a special fund for him.

Only the steadying counsel of the late Robert A. Taft prevented the amateurs then running the Eisenhower campaign from giving Nixon the heave-ho.

That incident threw a tremendous scare into the men around President Eisenhower and left a bad taste in their mouths. It is possible that they might use it as an argument for scuttling Nixon before the next campaign, if they are determined to get him out of the way.

The maneuvering against Nixon would peter out very quickly, if Mr. Eisenhower were to assert himself and order it stopped. An interesting aspect to the situation is that many persons believe that Nixon would be the logical Republican nominee for President, if Ike should not run. Nixon himself is a very shrewd and astute politician. There is no question but realizes that some GOP leaders have their hatchets out for him. It should be very interesting to watch the intraparty sparring.

Present indications are that the members of the Massachusetts Legislature will wind up their business and adjourn by the end of next week.

Political observers have made so many inaccurate guesses as to when the law-makers will conclude their affairs that they are now somewhat hesitant about to block out the deposit of making any further predictions. Unless uranium ore which was cursome unexpected snag develops, however, there is no reason the legislators cannot prorogue next week—if they conduct their business with even reasonable despatch.

Only a handful of major matters remain to be acted upon, but conflicts be-tween the Democratic House and the Re-publican Senate could prolong the arguments over these measures.

Two issues which may consume a good deal of time involve the proposed new penal code and a bill for the continuance of the State Crime Commission.

A conflict between the House and Senate has developed over both those mat-

This last process would keep us busy for a number of days.

With preparations completed, we left Grand Junction for the wilds. It was rather surprising to me that even a jeep could overcome some of the obstacles found on our way. From the air it often looked as though a sheer drop of many hundred feet would be almost impassable, and yet the road wound its way in and around the mesas, losing altitude in one spot in order to gain it a little farther on. The road was the worst I had the years, whether a Democrat or a Republican was serving at the head of the State government.

We Americans are proud of our freedoms and guard them jealously. Censorship is partirepugnant to most of us, but at times things go beyond the point of propriety and some positive and corrective action must be taken. This is the case at the Lynn Sports Center on with the obscene and lewd liter-ature which is saturating our evenings at 8:30 and Sunday community in the form of pocket size books and smutty magket size books and smutty mag-azines. Each month the National Organization of Decent Literature, which is located in Chicago, publishes a list of objectionable books and magazines. They the world holding both the are selected by a sub-committee World and North American are selected by a sub-committee of the National Committee of Catholic Women who read them. Our Newton Decent Literature Committee, armed with this list, contacts the local merchants and explains to them the objectives of the movement and seeks their cooperation. If the storekeeper agrees a member of the Committee will physically remove the objectionable books from the racks. The merchant then receives a Certificate of Honor which he may display. The members of the Committee try to get around to the stores as frequently as possible and the Certificate is renewed each month if the merchant con-

No Doubt In His Mind This Time!

This happy gentleman has just taken title to his seventh motor car.

And while he would probably have difficulty recalling all the different makes and models he has purchased through the years, there is one thing he knows with absolute certainty: He never felt like this before when he took the keys and made for the open road.

For this is his first Cadillac! And what a glorious feeling it is to know he has chosen the "car of cars"! Gone are the doubt ... and the worry ... and the wonder. This time he knows he's right!

And how quickly the evidence will assemble in support of his sentiment!

First of all, there will be the eloquent testimony of the car itself—its magnificent performance . . . its marvelous comfort and ride . . . and its incredible ease of steering and handling

And then, as he travels the boulevard, there will be those quick glances of approval from his fellow motorists to tell him that he is not alone in his judgment. And, finally, there will be that assembly of family and friends that awaits him at journey's end . . . offering final confirmation of the wisdom of his choice.

Of course, the man who takes title to a new Cadillac today enjoys the double satisfaction of having made the wisest possible choice at the wisest possible time.

Because of Cadillac's increased year-end produc-tion, for instance, he will find that he can have surprisingly prompt delivery on his new Cadillac.

And, as if this were not sufficient in itself, we are also in a position—because of our low inventory of used cars—to offer him a most generous allowance on his present automobile.

Why not come in soon—and spend an hour at the wheel—and let us acquaint you more fully with this unique opportunity?

IN A SPLIT SECOND... PLEDGE NOW TO ALWAYS DRIVE CAREFULLY!

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SAFETY OF OUR CHILDREN!

This is the time of year when every motorist must redouble his efforts to drive safely and make the streets safe for our school children. Do all you can to keep our youngsters safe from the perils of traffic. Resolve now to be a safe driver. Remember safety isn't just a now-and-then occurrence. Safety is the result of thinking, alertness and consideration everyday. Our school children have learned to practice safety habits, but sometimes they forget. You can't afford to forget, or be careless — for their sake and yours. When you see the sign "School Zone" always proceed with extreme caution. Keep your mind on the business of driving safely always. Extend the courtesies of the road to fellow motorists. Give the proper hand signals and observe the speed laws. The safety of our children and our community depends on your cooperation!

Rules For All Motorists

- 1. Adhere to all speed restrictions in school zones.
- 2. Watch and obey the school safety patrolmen.
- 3. Be sure you can stop quickly in wet and slippery weather.
- 4. Never pass a school bus unloading children.
- Watch for children darting out into the street.
- 6. Be extra careful at all times, you would not want to be responsible for injuring or taking the life of a child.
- 7. Check your car. Don't let bad brakes, faulty steering or lazy windshield wipers undo your careful driving.

Schools have a well-deserved reputation as being one of the est public school systems in this country. This distinction has come to Newton because many unselfifish and public spirited citizens so ably served on past School Committees of this City, and established high standards which always have been the guiding principles for the recent Committees on which I have had the honor to

"It is interesting to note that the six topics of the forthcoming White House Conference Education to be held in Washington the latter part of December and of the Massachusetts Conference on Educa-tion to be held at Amherst on September 8, 9 and 10, namely, (1) What should our schools accomplish?; (2) In what ways can we organize our school system more effectively and economically?; (3) What are school building needs?; (4) How can we get good teachers and keep them?; (5) finance our schools?; and (6) How can we obtain a continuing interest in education, are matters that been constantly considered and examined by Newton School Committees in re-lation to the schools of this city.

"The Newton Schools in recent years have been confronted with the problem of yearly increasing enrollment and the obtaining and retention of good personnel. One of the solutions to these urgent problems is the wise and courageous expenditure of public funds in order that our children may not be denied their rightful heritage and Newton may continue to have good

Community Rehearsals To Begin Tuesday, September 20, the

Newton Community Chorus will begin the fall season with first in West Newton at 8 p.m.

This is an organization of mixed voices, over high school age, established in 1948 by a group of civic-minded men and women with the cooperation of C. Evan Johnson, Recreation Commissioner of the City of Newton. Director of the Chorus is James H. Remley, Supervisor of Music in the Newton Schools.

The Chorus will welcome any prospective members, and invites anyone who likes to sing, can read music and can spare one evening per week to attend this first rehearsal. Further information may be obtained from the chairman of the membership committee, Mrs. Frank Pickett of Newton Highlands

Pickett of Newton Highlands whose phone number is LAsell 7.5371. Refreshments will be music. There will be plano and violin lessons at the Peirce Branc. in West Newton on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons as usual. THE MUSIC SCHOOL offers musical education to children and adults and its facilities are at the disposal of all who wish to study music seriously whether in the regular courses or as special students. # Political Overtones —

lic relations.

In short, the Democratic strategy shapes up as poor politics to this writer. The fact also is that some of the Senators from tight districts are decidedly uneasy and apprehensive as to the political con-sequences of the votes they cast against the highway measure.

The next obvious question is: Why then did they vote against the loan? Because of a mistaken sense of loyalty to their party leaders. At least it seems "mistaken" to most non-partisan observers on Beacon Hill.

The decision to make a Democratic fight against the highway bond issue originated in the House of Representatives, and the leaders in that body made the battle a matter of party loyalty.

After killing the loan order in its original form by one vote, the House chief-tains were not able to hold their strength when Governor Herter resubmitted the proposal, and last week the bill was given 17 votes more than the necessary twothirds for its enactment.

But then it met its unexpected defeat in the tightly knit State Senate where there is a much greater degree of party discipline than in the House.

The one factor which causes us to hesitate in predicting the political con-sequences of the bond issue's defeat is that this is not an election year and that the loan probably will be approved in 1956 long before the voters go to the

Because of the fact that the measure failed of passage by a margin of just one vote any single Senator who recorded himself against it can be blamed by his opponent for the defeat of the bill.

To some extent, however, that will fade as a campaign issue, if the measure goes through flying next year, as it undoubtedly will. Any of the 14 Democratic Senators then will be able to tell his constituents that he wasn't playing politics tituents that he wasn't playing politics at the expense of the road-building program, that he voted against the loan in 1955, when he felt it was not needed, and for it in 1956, when he considered it was

Then what did the 14 Democratic Senators accomplish, if next year they turn around and vote for the same matter? What, indeed? That is a query that causes the political seers to grope for a

The Democratic leaders demonstrated that in a showdown fight and in the face of great pressure they can induce a third of their members to stand firm with them.

Some of them also feel that they have prevented the GOP from raising a big campaign fund for next year's election. The theory behind that reasoning is that the contractors who performed work under the $125,000,000 program would show their appreciation by making a contribution to the Republican war chest.

Possibly some of them would have done so, and it's quite probable that certain of the men responsible for raising the Republican funds would have politely dropped hints of that nature. But raising money has never been a very critical Republican problem, and it is not likely that the GOP campaign will suffer from the lack of funds next year, even if no highways are built in the State.

Were any lavish parties held for legis-lators to induce them to vote for the bond bill? Were they offered bribes in any form in exchange for their votes? Were improper methods employed in an effort 'coerce" legislators, as has been

Not so far as we are aware, and we followed the maneuvering on Beacon Hill very closely.

If there are any Bacchanalian revels as one Senator has declared, we regret to report to that we were not invited to them and didn't even hear about them so that we might have shown up un-

The question cited above actually seen a little ludicrous, but they are listed and answered to the best of our ability because charges of that nature have been made by elected officials in responsible

One claim was made that a Senator could get $10,000 in cash or a trip around the world in return for his vote in support of the bond issue. We don't know of any senator to whom such a proposition was made or to whom any bribe was offered. We suspect very strongly that if any Solon had been so propositioned and had turned it down, he would have shouted loudly to the world about what had happened. The greatest pressure on this matter

Constitution Week, 1955 By The President of The United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WE the People of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common Defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this CONSTITUTION for the United States of America."

On September 17, 1787, the delegates to the Federal Convention in Philadelphia met for the last time and approved these familiar words now enshrined not only in our Nation's basic Instrument of Government but also in the hearts of our citizenry. Led by the President of the Convention, George, Washington, the great majority of the delegates signed the providence of the delegates are not approximately the second second the providence of the delegates are not provident to the convention. great majority of the delegates signed the newly drafted Constitution, and on the following day their Secretary set off for New York by stage coach to deliver the engrossed document to the United States in Congress there assembled. #### Is Bride at Garden Wedding

At a five o'clock ceremony in the garden of the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Caro of Auburn-dale, Miss Lois G. Pitnoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pitnoff of New Castle, Penn-sylvania, became the bride of Mr. Irwin M. Aisenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Aisenberg of Worcester. The mar-riage took place Sunday, Sep-tember 4 with Rabbi David Weiss of Brookline officiating A buffet dinner followed the

With her soft blue dress of French lace, portrait neckline rimmed with tiny seed pearls, the bride wore matching ac-cessories and carried a white bible with a marker of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mis Wilda A. Pitnoff of Washington, D.C., sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of deep turquoise with matching accessories.

The best man was Dr. Eph-rium Golden of Worcester, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. The bride is a graduate of Flora Stone Mather College, Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio, and her husband was graduated from Carnegie Tech. He is now attend-ing the University of Georgetown Law School. They will live in Washington, D.C., when they return from their wedding trip.

Newton Community Club

Anticipating the season by ome weeks, members of a special committee of the Newton Community Club met Tuesday afternoon, September 6, at the home of Mrs. William Ayres, vice-president and chairman of Ways and Means. At that time plans were made for the organization's Fall Bridge Party. This party, always a gala affair, is given annually by the club for the benefit of its Scholarship Fund, the money being used to help some Newton High School girl to realize her dream of going to college.

Discussing details of the affair were Mrs. Herbert Dwight, chairman of the Bridge Party, Mrs. Allan I. Hatfield, co-chairman, Mrs. Morgan S. Campbell, club president, Mrs. Donald MacKenzie, club treasurer, Mrs. George J. Appel, Mrs. William J. LaFay and Mrs. Carlton

At a recent dinner party at the Hotel Beaconsfield, vicepresident and trust officer George L. White of the Newton-Waltham Bank adressed and congratulated 38 members of the bank's staff who successfully completed A.I.B. courses at the 1954-55 season.

How much will it cost to send your children to college?

Now, when they're still in the Jungle Jim stage, is the time to start planning your children's college education. But do you realize that the average cost, including tuition, board, room and other fees, is about $1,250 per year per child?

Where is all this money coming from? In thousands of cases, it comes from the savings accounts that forward-looking parents have built up over the years in insured Savings and Loan Associations. Here are the advantages these Associations offer:

1. Your savings bring excellent returns, for these Associations invest most of their funds in sound, steady-paying home mortgages.

2. Your savings are safe. They are protected by sound management and substantial reserves, and insured up to $10,000 by an agency of the U.S. Government

3. You deal with friendly, experienced people. People who really care about you-and you community.

So if you want to be sure your children enjoy all the advantages of a college education, open a savings account in an insured Savings and Loan Association now!

Million $ Mortgages

Our current mortgage investment of 10 million proves that we like to make home loans . . . and it also proves that local home buyers like our service, our terms, and our personalized financing plans.

But probably more important to future home buyers is the fact that we still have more money available for mortgages. Yes, we have 10 million dollars in mortgages now but we have over 15 million dallars on deposit . . . to say nothing of our reserve and guaranty funds. Home financing dollars may be scarce in some banks, and in some parts of the country, but not at the Watertown Savings Bank.

So for your home financing dollars, get acquainted at Watertown's only Mutual Savings Bank.

Lovell Not to

Be Candidate

For Reelection

Alderman at large Richard H. Lovell of 234 Park street, Ward Seven, has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election to the Board of Aldermen, and has pledged full support to the Candidacy of Benjamin Shattuck, 327 Frank-lin street, whose nomination pa-pers were recently filed.

"Mr. Shattuck is admirably qualified for the post," Lovell stated, "and many of us in Ward 7, who have urged him to run, are glad to know that he is willing to serve. The city and this Ward will be fortunate to have him as a member of the Board of Aldermen." At the same time Mr. Lovell, a former member and chairman of the Planning Board, ex-pressed regret in ending his

Board today," Lovell said, "from President Bauckman to the newest member, is a distin-guished group, as it has been in years past. It is a privilege to know them and work with them in the common interests of the city. I wish, in many ways, that circumstances would permit me to continue beyond

Decent Literature

The Committee for Decent Literature of the Holy Name Society of the Church of Our Lady Help of Christians in Newton, deserves the congratulations and merits the thanks of every decent citizen of this city for the efficient work which it is doing in helping to stamp out the sale of indecent literature in this community. Last December The Graphic ran a series of three articles calling the public's attention to the large amount of indecent literature which could be purchased freely by anyone in many of the stores in Newton. The Graphic at that time pointed out the effect such lewd literature could have on the young mind and appealed for the merchants displaying such literature to rid their shelves of it. Yet this appeal had no perceptible effect until the Holy Name Society of the Church of Our Lady, recognizing the truth of the assertions, created an organization within its membership known as the Committee for Decent Literature. The members of this committee immediately visited and contacted owners of stores seliing such literature and prevailed on them, or at least a very large proportion of them, to remove such literature from sale with a promise to bar forever, the sale of such literature which the Committee for Decent Literature considered degrading. To the everlasting credit of these store

PREFACE

In spending considerable time in 15 European countries, it might be well to mention that my wife and I were acquainted with two languages other than English. However, my skill in French and my wife's in Spanish were completely inadequate for doing more than finding our way. French was our standby, although we eventually became somewhat familiar with German. In fact, we were quite surprised to find that in most instances laanguage did not present a problem. Obviously, we were quite average Americans without special knowledge which might enable us to be cultural, economic or political "specialists" in our

- Political Overtones -

Whether the Commission, having been saved, will accomplish anything remains to be seen. The truth is that it didn't come up with any spectacular results during the first period of existence, and that undoubtedly was why a majority of the Senators were reluctant to give it $150,000 to expend, as was first proposed by the House.

The silly statement by one legislator, who serves on the commission, that he had been told that the underworld has $200,000,000 on deposit in a Boston bank, doesn't instill much confidence that the agency will do any more in the future than it has in the past.

One need not be an expert on the banking system to realize that $200,000,-000 is not an amount which can be easily hidden in any bank.

Now that the Governor has brought it back into action, however, maybe the commission will justify its existence. For $100,000 it should at least be able to tell the people whether the legislator's $200,-000,000 story is fact or fiction. That should be quickly ascertainable by the probers.

What we started out to say was that the Governor was successful in getting a major part of his legislative program enacted into law, and that was a remarkable achievement in view of the fact that the House of Representatives was under Democratic control.

Even though the Democratic leaders in the House at times fought him step by step, Governor Herter was able to prevail most of the time, when the chips were down.

man was needed. To speed up the efficiency of her unit Mrs. Wilson asked the repair man to teach her how to fix the machines. He did, and by least In the face of the strongest kind of

One long-range prediction that can safely be made is that the bond issue will be overwhelmingly approved by both legislative chambers next year. There will be a good deal of pulling, hauling and maneuvering, however, to get credit for its passage. A number of lawmakers who voted Today Mrs. Wilson is Chair-man of Hospital Services for those who killed it in the Senate, have been deluged with letters of criticism from their constituents.

Several Senators have declared privately that they hope to get off the political hook by voting for it early in 1956 and thus eliminate it as a campaign issue a year hence. Whether that will stop Republican orators from accusing them of delaying the road-building program is another matter. There will be a breathing spell from politics of only a little more than three months on Beacon Hill before the legislators gather again to resume the fuss and furore of enacting laws.

The shadow of the 1956 elections will hang heavily over the proceedings in the two legislative chambers at the State House during the coming year. Each vote that is cast on a controver-back in the legislative districts. Each legislator will try to hold one hand on the public pulse and will have an ear carefully attuned for any reverberations that might be reflected at the polls.

There will be less wandering from party reservations. The legislative session probably will be shorter. Less time will be wasted, and in all probability fewer laws will be enacted. But from a political war sne was in the standpoint it should be an extremely incident occurred during her Redicitations for her hospital work, one for ten years of service teresting year.

In the reading rooms and the corridors at the State House there is considerable speculation as to what the future will hold for certain of the top legislative chieftains.

Senate President Richard I. Furbush of Waltham and Republican House Leader Charles Gibbons of Stoneham both are probably serving their last terms in their present capacities.

Furbush is the only person in the modern history of the State to win election three times to the Senate presidency. He tried to gain a place on the Republican State ticket in 1954 rather than break tradition but was defeated at the State Convention in Worcester for his party's nomination as State Treasurer.

The guessing is that Furbush will make another bid next year for Statewide office and, if he doesn't get it, will accept an appointive position in the State service. He's an extremely able presid-ing officer, however, and if Governor Herter should run for a third term, he might persuade Furbush to remain in the Senate, tradition or not.

Gibbons has said repeatedly that he will not again seek reelection to the House of Representatives. He has had all the honors that body can offer. He has been its minority leader, its Republican spokesman and its Speaker. He will make a fight for the Republican nomination for Governor next year, if Mr. Herter decides to step out. If Herter runs again or if Gibbons should lose to Lieutenant Governor Sumner G. Whittier at the convention, he then in all probability would challenge Congressman Torbert Macdonald.

Democratic State Senate Leader John Powers is opposing Boston's Mayor Hynes. If Powers wins that fight, he would resign from the Senate. If he loses, he will maintain his role as the Democratic spokesman in the upper legislative Speaker Michael F. Skerry of Medford has not divulged his political plans, but he is generally regarded as a potential candidate for Governor. Whether Skerry exercised sound judgment in opposing the highway loan is a question on which there is a sharp difference of opinion, but he was making what he considered the Democratic fight.

Next to the Governor himself, Speaker Skerry, Senate President Furbush, Republican House Leader Gibbons and Democratic Senate Leader Powers are the most influential figures at the State House.

One of the saddest sights for this re-porter during the recent legislative session was to watch able Senator Philip G. Bowker, whose district takes in Brookline and West Roxbury, recede toward blind-

His fellow Senators make no mention of his failing evesight and extend him no sympathy lest they hurt his feelings by doing so. But when one of them is approaching Bowker, he invariably speaks in a clear, distinct tone so the Senator will recognize the voice immediately.

This is written because Bowker is now on his way to Burone on a well deserved for him. This writer hopes its arrival will be long delayed. But when it does come, Philip G. Bowker will still be one of the most able, hard-working, active and hon-orable members of the State Senate. He is an outstanding public official, and his courage is enough to make the average person stand in awe.

Traditionally, America has encouraged and nourished small business.

the Community Service Club of West Newton. As everyone knows the operation of a hospital is a gigantic task. It not only requires highly skilled and paid staff members but also the unpaid volunteer. There are a multiple of tasks that must be done every day. The words every day are important, for a hospital job not done today can never be made up tomorrow. Mrs. Wilson's group works in two ways. Firstly, they sew, which includes everything from surgical dressings to sheets. Secondly they are responsible for preparing the materials which need to be sterilized. These jobs are not earth shattering but they are important. Without such women volunteers

Their Safety Depends on YOU!

Beware of the car you buy whether new or used. Require the seller, whether he be a dealer or a private individual, to give a written guarantee that the car was not submerged in the recent flood. Every dealer should require the same guarantee on every car he quire the same guarantee on every car.

This is the advice which the Registrar of Motor Vehicles, Rudolph F. King, gave to the public today. He said many of these cars may be unfit to be operated and hence unfit to be ristered.

registered.

It has been reported to Registrar King that flooded cars, many of which were considered total losses by the insurance companies, are being dumped in large numbers into the hands of dealers and others within this Commonwealth and in other states.

Respect and Obey the Safety Patrolman as You would a Policeman

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SAFETY OF OUR CHILDREN!

This is the time of year when every motorist must redouble his efforts to drive safely and make the streets safe for our school children. Do all you can to keep our youngsters safe from the perils of traffic. Resolve now to be a safe driver. Remember safety isn't just a now-and-then occurrence. Safety is the result of thinking, alertness and consideration everyday. Our school children have learned to practice safety habits, but sometimes they forget. You can't afford to forget, or be careless — for their sake and yours. When you see the sign "School Zone" always proceed with extreme caution. Keep your mind on the business of driving safely always. Extend the courtesies of the road to fellow motorists. Give the proper hand signals and observe the speed laws, The safety of our children and our community depends on your cooperation!

Rules For All Motorists

- 1. Adhere to all speed restrictions in school zones.
- 2. Watch and obey the school safety patrolmen.
- 3. Be sure you can stop quickly in wet and slippery weather.
- 4. Never pass a school bus unloading children.
- 5. Watch for children darting out into the street.
- 6. Be extra careful at all times, you would not want to be responsible for injuring or taking the life of a child.
- 7. Check your car. Don't let bad brakes, faulty steering or lazy windshield wipers undo your careful driving.

The triumphant Henry IV play cycle — "Henry IV, Part I" and "Henry IV, Part II" third production in the Group 20 Players summer festival season staged at the Wellesley College open ir amphitheatre, continues at Theatre on the Green through next Sunday evening. July 31. From boxoffice response and mail order reservations, the two Henrys promise to break every record at Theatre on the Green in its history.

The plays, incidentally, are given on alternate nights. Theatre-goers who pay to see Shakespeare's "Henry IV, Part I" get "Part II" as a bonus, thus drama lovers have the rare opportunity of seeing two shows for the price of one. As already noted, this is only the third time the Henry duced in America by a professional company and the first time it has been seen in New England. An imposing cast of upwards of fifty actors and actresses for the Henrys includes Thomas Gomez, Louis Edmonds, Frederic Warriner, Michael Higgins, Harry Faversham and Victor. Blessed with the directorial know-how of Alison Ridley, president of Group 20, with an assist from Tom Clancy on staging, Benno Frank on comedy and William Swetland on court scenes, these Shakespearean classes rate with the most exciting the theatre fare produced by Group 20 since it has come to Wellesley. The colorful setting and costumes,

a new car. This dollar loss could affect each of us very seriously and we must do something to reduce it.

ASK YOURSELF what would be the effect of, a fire here. It is possible that some of us would be killed. Last year 12,360 deaths were caused by fire in the U. S. and Canada, It is possible that we would suffer substantial loss of income. Each of us assumes that next week's pay check can be earned. We plan our future activities, buy homes. als and refuse are dangerous. our future activities, buy homes, als and refuse are dangerous.

into sounds that are clear and intelligible and represent the original idea of the composer. for this reason, the musicianship classes study note values, names and sounds of notes, rhythmic patterns, time and key signatures, intervals, phrasing, scales, chords, musical forms and the like. Not only does this help the student to progress more rapidly with his chosen instrument, but it gives him a better understanding of the meaning and purpose of music in general, and develops his taste for, and appreciation of, fine music.

Parents are invited to visit the school and observe the work in the musicianship classes.

Meeting-(Continued from Page 1)

The meeting will be Thursday, October 6, 8 p.m. at the Beethoven School in Waban. Since this is a subject which concerns all residents of Newton, it is an open meeting and anyone who is interested is welcome to attend. There will be ample opportunity to discuss the subject.

Fire Prevention

Fire Prevention is a family affair and everyone should do their part to try and remove every possible fire hazard.

If fire strikes in your home tonight, are you prepared to escape safely? Here are a few simple rules that someday may help save your life, or the life f someone you know if fire strikes. Study these rules carefully. Memorize them. Be sure everyone in your home knows them.

1. Remember, panic, not fire, is your most deadly catastroph enemy. Most people killed in fires could have saved their own lives if they had not become panic-

2. Call the fire department at once. Even a few seconds delay might cost someone's life.

3. If fire traps you and you are try-ing to escape, feel the doors for heat before opening them.

If the door is hot and you are forced to stay in the room, block the door with furniture to keep out smoke, gases and for help.

If the door is not hot, open it slightly.

If it appears safe on the other side, proceed cautiously; otherwise, close it tightly. 4. If your clothing catches fire, DON'T RUN. Lie down, roll yourself in a rug or heavy woolen blanket to smother the fire as quickly as possible.

5. When leaving a building which is on fire, close the door behind you if possiblefi Even a thin door will delay fire, siblefi Even a thin door will delay fire, but were told that they could be spots on top. #### Deserves Your Support

Once again, as following so many dis-asters in the past, the Salvation Army has provided selfless, devoted service to both flood victims and emergency crews aiding those victims.

But, despite the generosity of New Englanders in responding to the organization's special appeal for food and clothing, the Salvation Army has also expended heavily of its own funds to carry on the biggest Flood Relief program in its history in Ne wEngland.

The Salvation Army has conducted no special fund for money to replace that ex-

September and October, the magic, poetic months with the golden days, are attracting more and more vactioners and for plenty of good, prosaic reasons.

Political Overtones —

Looking back in retrospect now, it seems plain that the President, perhaps intentionally, dropped several hints that he would not be a candidate next year. But neither his political advisers nor the public generally wanted to believe them and accept them at face value.

The Republican leaders who have been planning a short, streamlined national convention at San Francisco next August will have to revise their plans and prepare for a long, drawn-out battle to determine who will carry the GOP Presidential banner into the next national election.

The man who is perhaps best fitted for that role and would make an outstanding candidate - Governor Christian A. Herter-is eliminated before the conflict even begins.

Nationally known columnists and radio and television commentators during the past several days have repeatedly point-ed to the Bay State Governor as the man who might lead the Republican party into battle next year.

Under the generally accepted interpretation of the United States Constitution, Mr. Herter, unfortunately, is in-eligible to serve as President.

The Constitution provides that a President must be a natural born citizen. A Supreme Court decision presumably would be needed to establish precisely what that means, but it is interpreted to .nean that a President must be born within the continental limits of the United States.

Mr. Herter was born in Paris, France. He was not born in an American embassy, as columnists some-times report. It probably wouldn't make any difference if he had been, but the fact is he was not. His father was not in the diplomatic service. He was an

For Nurses Aides To Start Soon

The Newton Chapter, American Red Cross wishes to announce that a training class for Nurses Aides will commence early in October. The ever present need for this service in the hospital is increasing.

Occurences such as the polio epidemic place a constant strain on the nursing staff. A Nurse's Aide can attend to many necessary duties, thereby relieving a trained nurse for more specialized work. Mrs. Joseph C. Mac-Donald, Chairman of Nurses Aides for the Newton Chapter, asks that any who are interested in serving their community in this "interesting and satis-fying way" either contact her at De 2-0293 or call the Chap-ter House, La 7-6000 as soon as possible for further information regarding the course.

Her husband, Carl Fritz, is a businessman and is pleased with her achievement. She says she studies law because she "happens to enjoy it." She has made no special plans to practice law, but will wait until she sees what the opportunities are.

OTHERS from this city to pass the bar exam were:

Mrs. Lennos D. Glavin of 15 Mt. Vernon terrace, Newtonville; Melvin E. Bailet of 11 Sagamore road, Newton Highlands; William C. Conway of 310 Commonwealth avenue, Chestnut Hill; Champe A. Fisher of Newton Centre; Elliott I. Mishara of 158 Cotton street, Newton Centre; Earl F. Nauss, Jr., of Newton, and Irving J. Rich of Newton Centre.

Mrs. Glavin, who is secretary to James A. Waters, Newton Centre lawyer, has a son who recently graduated from Carnegie Institute of Technology and is at a language school for the Army in Monterey, Calif. Her husband, John G. Glavin, is a supervisor of education in the State Department of Education.

SHE WAS VALEDICTORIAN in the 1955 class at Portia Law School and is also getting a Master's degree in Education from Calvin Coolidge College in February. Her ambition, she says, is to combine the teaching and practice of law. She did not go to school until her son went to college, she stated.

for a good deal and good deal more

Pontiac gives you more beauty, size and power—and record-breaking sales mean record-breaking deals!

When we say a "good deal" we're being plenty conservative. Actually our deals are terrific - and here's why.

Right now, we're reaching for a new sales record in September to match the record-smashing sales of the months past.

We're going all-out to get it done-trading with a freehandedness we've never touched before. In fact, until you get our appraisal, you'll have no real idea how much your present car is worth. And that line about "a good deal more"- that's another understatement. It's a matter of record that Pontiac combines greater beauty, size, power and stability than cars priced hundreds of dollars more. It's a tremendous bargain even without benefit of a special deal.

It's the most beautifully distinctive car in America -bar none!

It's a big car! That rugged, shock-proof chassis has a 122-or 124-inch wheelbase-just what it takes for a smooth and steady ride.

And the Strato-Streak V-8 is right out of the future -the newest and most advanced automotive power plant of them all with the most exciting performance you have ever enjoyed.

Come in for the rest of the facts-and the amazing figures that prove how easily you can own a highpowered, high-styled Pontiac.

Make it soon. There's a limit to how long we can keep trading at this rate.

Temple Emanuel Schedules Three Sukkot Services

The Festival of Sukkot, known also as the Feast of Tabernacles, will be observed at Temple Emanuel with special Services beginning Friday evening at 6 p.m. Services on Saturday and Sunday mornings will commence at 9 a.m. Dr. Albert I. Gordon will offi-clate at the services. The liturgy will be chanted by Cantor Gab-riel Hochberg. He will be as-sisted by the Temple Choir, which is directed by Mr. Louis Siagel. Mrs. Rhoda Kaplan is the Temple Organist. Dr. Gordon will preach on both days of the Festival on Saturday and Sunday mornings at 10

This Festival is primarily a Festival of Thanksgiving for the abundance of the harvest, as well as for the mercies of the Almighty to His Children. Tab-ernacles derives its name from the Command, "He shall dwell in Booths seven days (Leviticus 23:42-43)." This Festival serves as a reminder to man of his need to trust in the goodness of God, and provides him with an opportunity to offer thanks for his gifts.
